

FAITH FORUM

Catholic Moral Teaching

Can the Church find common ground with modern social movements?

In a society that takes contraception for granted, de facto relationships and extra marital sex are widely accepted, abortion sanctioned by the Law and homosexual relationships gaining more and more acceptance, can the Church's moral teaching be reconciled with contemporary social attitudes?

Our Forum explains the Church's moral teaching and addresses its place in our contemporary society.

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Gail Instance

Family Life International

and

Bernard Toutounji

Life Marriage & Family Centre

Archdiocese of Sydney

When: Sunday 12 September 2010

12 noon

Meeting Room Rotunda Meeting Room 2 (next to the Atrium Rm)
(Kirk Street opposite the church – follow the signs)

All parishioners and interested associates are welcome to attend and to join in the discussion following the talks from our guest speakers. You may submit a question in advance or indicate a particular aspect of the Church's moral teaching that you would like to be addressed in this forum by leaving a note with the parish office marked "Parish Forum".

Enquiries: Michael – 9967 2601/Cecilia